

OnFeature

June 23, 2013

A Toast To Hollywood Glamour At Upstairs At The Kimberly Hotel , New York

There are many, many places to drink the night away but rooftop bars are an absolute in New York. A few cocktails with friends is fun but if a panoramic view accompanied by it then it is priceless. New York is well known for their rooftop bars, standing out in New York takes more than clever gimmicks, among the opulence of rooftop bars and with the warm weather finally rolling in, why not head to the roof, Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel. Often topping the city's Best Rooftop Bar' lists, a breathtakingly view of Manhattan skyline and trendy setting are some of the perks you'll find while you're on the top.

You will feel like you've stepped into the old glamorous Hollywood lounge the moment you step out of the lift. Situated thirty stories high on the top of the Kimberly Hotel, Upstairs is a luxurious penthouse lounge. This 3,000 sq. ft. establishment features Manhattan's only rooftop bar with retractable all glass ceiling and walls for all year round enjoyment, three separate indoor/outdoor atmospheres, ambient heated floors. With stunning views overlooking the iconic Chrysler Building, this screams relaxed; where professional crowd gathers to relax over a few drinks.

Design by Architect, Frank Denner, in collaboration with New York Design firms, Pentasia Designs and De-Spec has created an all-year-round, glass convertible enclosed, temperature controlled oasis thirty stories above Manhattan. The bar aesthetic is a blend of Hollywood glamorous with a touch of modernism, bohemian construction connects an amalgam of elements such as the hand-cut bronze bar by Shock Studio topped with honed absolute black granite by Stone Masters, cascading ivy walls by Sal Cantatore, and hand-painted Venetian walls by Anthony Chase. A part from the strings of incandescent bulbs that float overhead around the lounge designed by lighting designer Brian Orter, combines with vintage theatrical lights, custom-tailored and new to conjure up an atmosphere of by-gone affluence. All furnishings and fixtures were carefully curated by Pentasia Designs, Interpret a fresh spin on the Hollywood glamorous. Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel is enhanced by the simple yet sophisticated décor, romantic yet very cute atmosphere is sure to impress.

With extensive drink list and creative specialty cocktails such as House Favourites Rum Service or Honey Breeze, you'll feel as cool as cucumber as you sip on the amazing cocktails in an airy vista or a starry night. The bar which offers small plates, and a great opportunity to eat your way around Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel style of cooking in one evening. Service was impeccable with attention to details.

While the ambiance at Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel is definitely sophisticated, the friendly patrons create a refreshingly unpretentious and welcoming atmosphere for a low-key evening out.

3 Words to sum up Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel, beautiful, enchanting and stunning! An evening here has the frisson of the illicit. It is quite a good-looking spot with expertly curated art and a clubby feel – and faintly, agreeably louche. All in all, it's quite simply a well worth escape from the city. Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel, we have a crush on you and it looks like it might get serious!

Upstairs at the Kimberly Hotel is located at 145E 50th St, New York, NY 10022, United States (between Lexington and Third Ave in Midtown)

<http://upstairsnyc.com/index.php>